ADVERTISEMENTS.

MESMERIC and PHRENOLOGICAL SOCIETY, 27, DUKE STREET, MANCHESTER SQUARE.—The Council meet at 8 o'clock precisely every Wednesday evening for the admission of Members, the investigation of Mesmeric Phenomena, and to superintend operations in the Mesmeric state.

T. PURLAND, Hon. Sec.

59, Mortimer-street, Cavendish-square.

MEDICAL GALVANISM.—HORNE, THORNTHWAITE, and WOOD (successors to E. Palmer), CHEMICAL and PHILOSOPHICAL INSTRUMENT MAKERS, 123, Newgate-street, London, beg to submit their Portable Electro-Galvanic Machines to those afflicted with Rheumatism, Sciatica, Tic Doloreux, Paralysis, and all Nervous Affections, being so extremely simple that they may be used by the patients themselves without trouble. Complete, with directions, 3*l.* 3*s.*

MR. SPENCER T. HALL, practical and consulting MESMERIST and PHRENOLOGIST, 59, Pall Mall (opposite Marlborough House), London, has a MESMERIC SEANCE, with SOMNAMBULIC and other EXPERIMENTS, every TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, and FRIDAY, at twelve o'clock, to which the Nobility, Gentry, and Members of the polite and learned Professions are admitted by Cards, had of Mr. Ollivier, publisher and bookseller, Pall Mall.

A private SEANCE may be commanded, if desirable, at any other period of the day.

"Mr. Hall's experiments are too refined, elegant, and elaborate for a miscellaneous audience; but I may truly say that I never attended a lecture illustrated by phenomena so beautiful and satisfactory."—Speech of Dr. G. Calvert Holland, author of "Vital Statistics," &c.

"I have been most intimate with Spencer Hall from his very boyhood, and know that he loves whatever is true and beautiful, and scorns whatever is false or mean. * * * The phenomena he has shewn us might furnish the finest studies for painting or sculpture."—William Howitt, author of the "Rural Life of England," &c.

"Allow me to express my very great obligation to you for enabling me (Mr. George Combe and Liebig being also present) to see your most interesting and important experiments in so satisfactory a manner. I would add my entire conviction of their genuineness, and of your being actuated by the love of truth alone in shewing them, if I thought such an assurance could be required by any candid witness of the phenomena."—Letter of Professor Gregory, University College, Edinburgh.

"I owe much to Mr. Hall for his disinterested zeal and kindness. He did for me all he could; and it was much to make a beginning and put us in the way of proceeding."—Miss Harriet Martineau's public Report of her Cure by Mesmerism.

"The facts of Mesmerism are of a nature so startling, that we must be satisfied not merely of the integrity, but also of the sagacity of the operator, before we can yield them our belief. Both these qualities Mr. Hall obviously possesses in a remarkable degree. And when the patients are under his influence, as nothing in sculpture surpasses the beauty of their attitudes, so nothing in features irradiated by the habitual emotions of a noble and cultivated nature is more exquisite than the expression which lights up theirs."—Bon Gaultier.

"These phenomena startle you, because they are put too much in comparison with our more ordinary experience, instead of our higher knowledge. Yet as I have watched with the closest scrutiny the experiments by which Mr. Hall has developed them, my interest in them has been intense, and my satisfaction and delight equalled only by my conviction of their importance."—Public Speech of Dr. Dick, the Astronomer.

 A Conversazione every Friday Evening at Eight o'Clock.

OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS.

"We must give a word of hearty and unreserved praise to The Edinburgh Tales, a weekly issue of stories and novelettes, conducted by Mrs. Johnstone. The first monthly part is before us, containing two complete Tales by Mrs. Johnstone, and prefatory sketch of their imaginary narrator. It is amazingly cheap; but that is its least merit. The tales are delightfully told; naturally, cheerfully, with great refinement of feeling, and a skilful variety of manner. The character of 'Richard Taylor' has touches Charles Lamb might have given; and the prudent heart of Miss Edgeworth would rejoice in 'Young Mrs. Roberts' Three Christmas Dinners.' We shall watch the progress of this undertaking with interest. The beginning is of the best promise."—Examiner.

"Why, this a more exquisite song than the other! [A work so cheap and excellent, that it has been called one of the wonders of the age.]"—Spectator.

"We very conscientiously recommend these Tales to the public. They are amusing, and full of right principle and sensible advice."—Literary Gazette.

"Mrs. Johnstone is in every way qualified to conduct a periodical consisting of a variety of Tales. Fidelity, truth, and a moral purpose are found in all she writes. We cordially welcome this serial, and wish it all the success its merits deserve."—Atlas.

MISS TYTLER'S NEW WORK FOR JUVENILE READERS.

In small 8vo. with a Frontispiece, price 5s.

TALES of GOOD and GREAT KINGS. By M. FRASER TYTLER. Containing the Lives of James I. of Scotland—Charles V. of Germany—Gustavus Vasa of Sweden—Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden—Henri Quatre of France—Henry V. of England—Letter to Arthur and George Rawdon.

"It is with very sincere pleasure we call attention to this volume, which may be looked on as a continuation of the Tales of the Great and Brave, formerly noticed by us. We know of no works we would more willingly put into the hands of children from the age of from six to ten years (ay, and those of more mature age would do well to peruse them). They contain biographies of great and good men, true histories, told in a simple, unaffected, but most interesting manner, and are at once calculated to engage the attention, and greatly to increase the information of the youthful reader. When we add that this volume contains the lives of the gentle, accomplished, and truly royal 'James the First of Scotland,' of 'Gustavus Adolphus,' 'The Lion of the North,' of the romantic 'Henri Quartre,' &c. &c. it will at once be understood that it is equal in interest to its predecessors. The concluding letter from the authoress of Her Nephews is full of kind feeling and wise instruction. We wish it were engraved on the hearts of all our children."—Glasgow Argus.

In nine vols. post 8vo. price 6s. each,

HISTORY OF SCOTLAND.

Part II. Containing the conclusion of Sequestration, Voluntary Compositions, Ranking and Sale, and Cessio, will be published in a few days, and complete the Work.

"This work reflects credit on the Scottish Bar. In fullness and lucidity of general proposition; in vigour and accuracy of critical inquiry; in scope of research and terse power of thought and expression,—it stands in honourable contrast with the great herd of text books."—Law Magazine.

TO ARTISTS, AMATEURS, ETC.

PERMANENT DRAWING CHALK

IN CEDAR, IN VARIOUS COLOURS.

E. WOLFF AND SON beg to apprise Artists and Amateurs that they have, by the introduction of great improvements in their CRETA LÆVIS, enabled it to be used the same as the ordinary Pencil; and effects can now be produced equal to water-colour drawings, without the use of water or any other fluid, the various colours, blending together with perfect harmony, beauty, and richness. It can be cut to a fine point, and is thus capable of giving a very delicate outline. For sketching from nature, the great advantages resulting from the adoption of the CRETA LÆVIS must be obvious, as without the use of water, palette, brushes, &c. all the various tints can be obtained with a truthfulness that cannot be surpassed, thus superseding every other method in general use.

The drawings may be carried in a Portfolio with safety, as, unlike other Crayons, they will neither rub off, nor suffer injury by coming in contact with the usual contents of a Portfolio.

The CRETA LÆVIS will not be affected by heat or change of climate; and, by its compact form, may be carried any distance without the slightest inconvenience. To be had of all respectable Stationers, and of the Manufacturers, at the following prices :—

Leather box, containing a set of 12..	7s. each.
— — — 18..	10s. —
— — — 24..	14s. —
— — — 36..	21s. —
In sets as above, without a box, at	6s. per doz.
Lake and Cobalt	12s. —

 May be had also in Crayons without cedar, in sets as above, at 6s. per dozen, box included.

WOLFF & SON beg to recommend their newly-invented SKETCHING PENCILS, or Permanent Black Chalk :—
B B, Very black, for foreground; H B, Middle tint; N, Neutral tint, for distance. Price 6s. per dozen.

These Pencils are peculiarly adapted for sketching heads and landscapes, and are capable of producing a beautiful effect with very little labour. Having an adhesive quality, the drawings may be transmitted without fear of injury.

IMITATION OR-MOLU FRAMES,

A SAVING OF FIVE HUNDRED PER CENT.

E. F. WATSON

BEGS to return his most sincere thanks for the kind and liberal patronage he has met with for several successive years: encouraged by the past, he is induced to look forward with sanguine expectations to the future, and is desirous of directing the attention of all who patronise the Fine Arts to his NEWLY-INTRODUCED IMITATION OR-MOLU FRAMES: so perfect and elegant is the construction, in carved and gilt work, that few (if any) can discover the difference. The Frames are enclosed in a highly-polished Rosewood Case; and being faced with Plate Glass, and backed with Velvet, retain their original lustre for many years.

E. F. W. flatters himself that his long experience and knowledge as an Artist will secure a Selection of the most tasteful and original Designs, which he can offer to the Public for ONE-FIFTH the price of Or-Molu Frames. It is a well-known fact, that the effect of many valuable works of Art is completely destroyed by inappropriate Frames; it therefore must be a desideratum to entrust them to a Frame Maker who is himself an Artist, though not practising Painting professionally.

His newly-invented Oak and Gold Frames are also in great repute, being admirably adapted to Engravings, &c., and taking the entire precedence of Maple or other Fancy Woods.

The Alterations which his Premises have lately undergone not only afford increased accommodation to all who may favour him with a visit, but, together with other arrangements, enable him to pledge himself to the execution of all Orders under his own personal inspection, and with the greatest punctuality and despatch.

E. F. W.'s attention continues to be directed to the complete Restoration of Pictures by the Old Masters; and he trusts the approbation and high testimonials he has hitherto obtained will be a sufficient guarantee to his future success in this important department of his business.

His Picture Gallery has just received a fresh importation, by the following Masters :—Rembrandt, J. Van Hughtenburgh, Wm. Van de Velde, Peter Van Laar, Correggio, Boucher, Schalken, Honsius, Gaspar de Witte, Valesques, and many others.

Regilding in all its various branches; but E. F. W. has a peculiar method of Cleaning Defaced Gilding, so as in many instances to render the expense of regilding unnecessary.

ADVERTISEMENT.

As the Juvenile Works which have appeared under the name of PETER PARLEY have obtained great celebrity in this country, the Publishers have accepted a proposal from Mr. Goodrich, of Boston (America), the author of the original book published under that name, to bring out a series of new works expressly adapted for English readers. The following letter from Mr. Goodrich expresses his views and intentions in regard to this undertaking:—

"GENTLEMEN,—I think it is now understood between us that I am to prepare a series of books of which you are to be the publishers. I undertake this task with pleasure, because it is my wish to be judged in England by what I do write, and not by what has been written for me. I have been much vexed since my arrival in this country to see the name of PETER PARLEY attached to a number of books, published in London, which I never saw or heard of, and which contain much of what I wholly disapprove, and consider to be contrary to good morals. I have also seen my books mutilated and altered so that I scarcely recognise any thing in them as my own, except the title and some disfigured fragments.

"It is, therefore, a real satisfaction to me that my future works are to make their appearance in England in a genuine form, and with the advantage of Mr. S. Williams's illustrations. I shall not fail to keep in view that I am now writing for English readers, and I trust that I may thereby render what I write more worthy of the kind reception which, with all their disadvantages, my previous works have met with.

"I am, Gentlemen, yours truly,

"London, Aug. 1842." "S. G. GOODRICH."

LITERARY LEAVES; or, Prose and Verse. By DAVID LESTER RICHARDSON.

2 vols. 8vo. Second Edition, price 12s.

"We strongly recommend this second and enlarged edition. We can easily imagine how such writings as these, appearing from time to time in the Indian journals, must have gratified the English residents, since even here, in the midst of lions and new books, we run over the leaves with unmixed pleasure."—Atlas.

"His poetry derives from his unfeigned attachment to home a very touching beauty. Most persons who have been long absent from the place of their birth know how delicious is the feeling with which it is approached. Mr. Richardson describes this feeling with exquisite truth and tenderness. Whatever forms of nature challenge his preference, he views them all with a poetical eye, and paints them in his verses with vividness and fidelity. We should be glad to see the poetry of these volumes detached from the prose, and sent into the world alone. It has sufficient character in it to depend on its own vitality: and we venture to predict that it will live."—Sunday Times.

"The essays afford some exquisite reading. We can, with perfect confidence, refer every man of literary taste to these volumes, which we consider an elegant and valuable contribution to the literature of our country."—Indian News.
